A scenic outdoor setting for a picnic. In the foreground, a blue and white checkered blanket is laid out on a lush green lawn. On the blanket, there is a brown wicker picnic basket, a blue textured cushion, and two cow-print patterned cushions. To the right of the blanket, a green metal bucket with the words "FARMERS MARKET" printed on it sits next to a wooden cutting board and a knife. The background features a line of tall, leafy trees under a bright sky, with a wire fence visible in the distance. Long shadows from the trees are cast across the grass.
